BACK TO AGRA!

It is our honour and pleasure to welcome you at the historical city of Taj Mahal which is known for the eternal love of Shahjahan and Mumtaz Bano! The sheer beauty of this monument standing on the bank of river Yamuna is sure to leave you spell bound! Visit Fateh Pur Sikri and you will be dwarfed by Buland Darwaja.

Brajbhoomi, the birth place of Lord Krishna, and with its rich history and cultural heritage is perfect for a convergence of hearts and minds.

The venue of conference Hotel Clarks Shiraz, the oldest five star property in the city, will bring back the nostalgic memories of GSICON- 2025

The city is also known for its medical college which is one of the fourth oldest in the country and has produced lots of stalwarts and celebrities!

The theme “ADDING LIFE TO YEARS” speaks itself of the scientific deliberations which would be delivered by luminaries and legends from around the country.

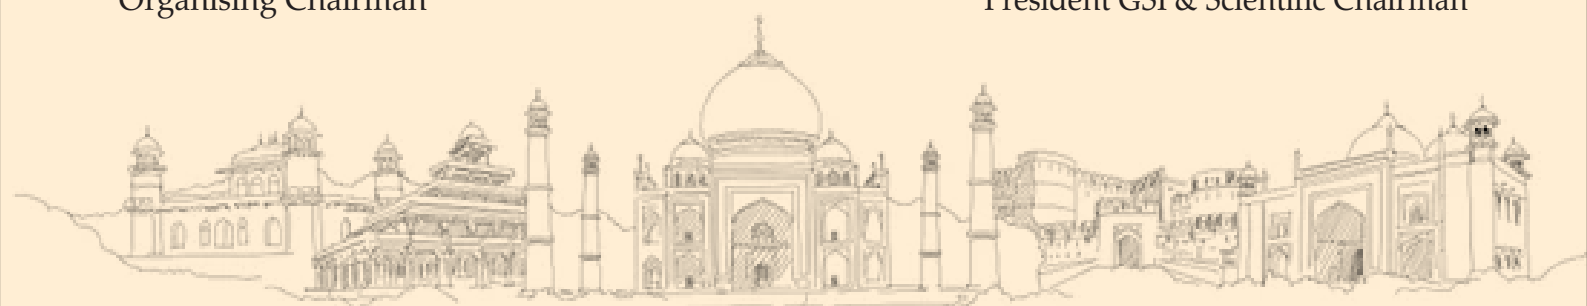

we are sure this conglomeration will create a new milestone in the care and service of our aging population

Thank you

IN AND AROUND AGRA

Taj Mahal

The Taj Mahal is an ivory-white marble mausoleum on the south bank of the Yamuna River in the Indian city of Agra. It was commissioned in 1632 by the Mughal emperor, Shah Jahan, to house the tomb of his favourite wife, Mumtaz Mahal.

Red Fort

Agra Fort is a historical fort in the city of Agra in India. It was the main residence of the emperors of the Mughal Dynasty until 1638, Before capture by the British, the last Indian rulers to have occupied it were the Marathas. In 1983, the Agra fort was life inscribed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is about 2.5 km northwest of its more famous sister monument, the Taj Mahal

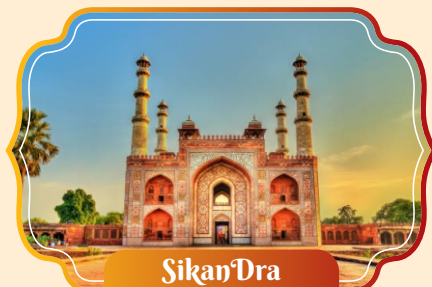

Itimad-ud-Daulah

Mughal emperor Jahangir, conferred the title of Itimad-ud-Daulah on Mirza Ghiyas Beg, the father of his wife Noor Jahan. But the tomb of Itmad-ud Daulah along that of his wife Asmat Jahan was built by their daughter Noor Jahan from 1622 to 1628.

Fatehpur Sikri

Fatehpur Sikri is a town in the Agra District of Uttar Pradesh, India. The city itself was founded as the capital of Mughal Empire in 1571 by Emperor Akbar. Given its spectacular history, architecture and legacy, Fatehpur Sikri was conferred with the status of UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1986

Sikandra

Begun by Emperor Akbar and completed by his son Jahangir in 1613 AD, Akbar's tomb in Sikandra is a fusion of Hindu and Muslim art and architecture which, like the Emperor himself, characterize the era. Open : Sunrise to Sunset /All Days of the week.

Swami Bagh

Head quarters of the Radha Swami religion. Here the holy ashes of the founder of the faith have been preserved. Daily congregational service of satsang is held. The marble structure of the temple is perpetually under construction. Open : 9 AM to 5.30 PM. All days of the week.
